RACING PREVIEW

By Luke Middlebrook from iRACE magazine

Singapore racing continues on Saturday (14 May) for a 12-race fixture at Kranji Racecourse, one week out from the Group 1 Kranji Mile which is all set to go down the following Saturday (21 May).

An even 12-race fixture this week with just a Class 4 1600m Handicap on the Polytrack as the highest-rated race on the card, however there are some interesting races across the day.

In the final race, the Class 4 1100m Handicap on the Polytrack, leading trainer Tim Fitzsimmons and leading jockey Manoel Nunes team up with recent stable acquisition GOLD TEN SIXTY-ONE.

GOLD TEN SIXTY-ONE was an impressive debut winner in August last year when previously known as DINAR. Subsequently, the three-year-old finished a luckless sixth in a Novice race two starts. GOLD TEN SIXTY-ONE then spelled for more four months before resuming with an encouraging first-up effort 42 days ago for trainer Jason Lim, beaten a head in the final stride over 1200m at this track.

GOLD TEN SIXTY-ONE has been transferred to the in-form Fitzsimmons stable since, and trialling very well ahead of this week's race, he can prove hard to run down in a field without much depth.

Another stable transfer who can win for Fitzsimmons is BUURAQ in the Class 5 1200m Handicap (race 7). BUURAQ was last seen turning in a better run than it reads into fifth over an unsuitable 1000m on the Polytrack 42 days ago, in which he raced wide at the rear of the field but came home strongly. Fitzsimmons looks to him flying and he will be hard to beat on his Class 5 debut.

Meanwhile, Fitzsimmons continues his good form and leads the premiership with a five-win buffer over Jason Ong 25-20. Manoel Nunes looks virtually unstoppable in the jockeys' premiership, with it seemingly only a question of "how far"? Nunes sits atop the ladder with 44 wins, 25 ahead of Oscar Chavez on 19 wins.

Race Preview: Snip backing up quickly from a good last start effort and can run well again having drawn ideally low as well as rising to 1100m. It is also worth noting his handy record of two wins and four placings from nine starts when racing on the quick back up. Qaidoom lightly-raced mare who looks a solid chance at her second start for the Clements stable Flak Jacket old-timer who relishes Class 5 and was last seen closing off strongly into fifth. Magnifique making Class 5 debut and must be respected. Superior Coat was an easy last start winner and must be respected.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Snip win bet.

Race Preview: The Star debut run was good and has trialled well since. The rise to 1200m as well as switching to turf look big ticks and he can get on the board second-up. Deception looks overdue for a win and enters this race in good form. He should relish the drop back in distance. Dixit Dominus has shown ability and gets his chance to win here after a solid second last start. Sousui newcomer who trialled okay and can run well from the low draw. Bounty Rainbows gelded after last run and look for improvement here first-up off two okay trials.

Race Preview: Engine Start last run was much better than it reads as he struck a slowly run race but did make up the most ground late as he closed off strongly into fourth. He also had excuses with the saddle slipping. From a low draw, he looks ready to win. Mighty Vain recent barrier trial was impressive, suggesting a good run can be expected. Missile Rain turned in a nice effort last run when finishing strongly into third. Lim's Puncak Jaya blinkers added first time, but with no trial to go off, and is worth considering. Melody Fair looks a solid good chance based on last start's second place.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Engine Start win bet.

Race Preview: Buuraq change of trainer recently (J Lim to T Fitzsimmons) and looks ready to run a big race in Class 5 for the first time. He should be too good for this lot. Takhi bled last start but has since trialled well under Nunes, who takes the ride here from a low draw. Sun Rectitude proven performer at this level and will give you a good run for your money hard up on the pace. Summer Wind looks a solid good chance based on last start and is another who can give a sight. Cavalla Court is better than recent form indicates and can improve.

Race Preview: A race with a few chances here and Rocketship looks a good chance to get a second win for the season after she caught the eye last start when running home well. But from the low draw here, expect her to roll forward under Beasley and give a sight. Siam Royal Orchid a proven performer at this level and is knocking on the door. Hugo drops in class here and finds a suitable race, he could be too good if at his best. Quadcopter had no luck last start when caught wide but still ran well. Thunder finished powerfully with fastest sectional time ranking last start.

Race Preview: Lion Spirit finds a good opportunity to score an overdue win here. He has drawn well low here a lot of his key rivals have drawn wide and his two last-start third placings are good enough to win this. Poroshiri last start winner who has trialled well since and remains a solid chance with Nunes remaining in the saddle. Resurgence backing up quickly from a good win last week but just needs luck from the draw while stepping up in trip. Sun Pittsburgh she's the track and distance specialist who can finish powerfully over the top late. Anyway should be highly suited by the rise in distance.
