RACING PREVIEW

By Luke Middlebrook from iRACE magazine

Singapore racing continues on Sunday (26 June) with the running of the G2 Stewards' Cup (1200m), the lead up race for next month's Singapore Derby for the four-year-olds.

That race sees star four-year-old LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO primed to claim his first Group victory for trainer Daniel Meagher. LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO has undoubtedly asserted himself as the best four-year-old this season by posting an impressive record of eight wins and one placing from 10 starts. The only occasion on which he missed the frame was last time in the $1m G1 Kranji Mile. However, his 10th place finish was much better than it reads as he stalked the speed off a frantic tempo and was entitled to weaken in the straight, beaten 4.5 lengths over this distance.

Standing out as the highest-rated horse (101) under the Set Weights conditions, it's LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO's race to lose. His main danger, TIGER ROAR, enters this race off a facile first-up win in Class 3 after a lengthy spell, and seemingly still has points in hand off his current mark of 83. Both horses boasting different racing patterns – LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO goes forward and TIGER ROAR settles back – it ensures a spine-tingling contest as the four-year-olds set sights on next month's Singapore Derby.

Elsewhere, Stephen Gray has called upon the famous Vlad Duric drive to get five-year-old COMMODORE across the line for a first career win in the Maiden (1200m) on the Polytrack. COMMODORE has been placed at all three starts and he put the writing on the wall when first-up three weeks ago when narrowly beaten. COMMODORE won't find many better opportunities to shed his maiden tag in, with the majority of his opposition needing big improvement.

Meanwhile, trainer Tim Fitzsimmons (30 wins) boasts a four-win lead over Donna Logan (26 wins). Manoel Nunes (58 wins) is side-lined for a while through injury, but boasts a 34-win lead over Oscar Chavez (24 wins) who gets his chance to etch into Nunes' lead whilst absent.

IRACE

Race Preview: Fast And Fearless turned in a nice effort last run when finishing strongly and given the stable's rich vein of form, he can win this moderate Class 5 contest. Samurai Express last start winner who remains in the same grade, must be considered with Pinheiro in the saddle. Cash Out bled last start and has been rested, he races first-up with a name change (Late: My Horse) . Lim's Force can upset some more fancied rivals on best form, chance in a race of this nature. Arion Passion a proven performer at this level and rates in the chances, but generally he is best over 1000m.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Fast And Fearless win bet.

Race Preview: A wide-open RM with a few who have ability. Sousui turned in a nice debut run, despite having plenty of excuses in running as well as the jockey failing to ride to the satisfaction of the stewards, and can go two places better second-up. Prioritize newcomer who has trialled well for debut, top chance with Duric on from a low draw. Charminton drops in class here (Class 4 to RM) and finds a suitable race, he can give this a mighty shake. Cash Cove nice 2YO who appears very well placed at the weights and should be respected. Trident making local debut and has trialled well, should run a big race.

IRACE

Race Preview: Qaraat changed trainer, first start for new trainer Mahadi, and trialled very well recently. Can improve big time. Captain Legacy blinkers added first time in Singapore, worth considering after an okay trial. Circuit Star drawn well in barrier 1 under Chavez and should gain a nice run in transit for the in-form Peters stable. Miracle drops in class, where he boasts a strong record, and start to follow. He can bounce back in a big way. Galaxy Star has ability and is always dangerous in this grade, but the wide barrier for Faiz looks like a concern.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Qaraat each-way.

IRACE

Race Preview: Eastiger recent runs have been encouraging, checking home third in his last three runs, and can run well in a modest Class 5 contest. My Boss ran the third fastest sectional time last start, which was a good effort as he had traffic problems in the straight. Eunios Ave Three had plenty of excuses last start when pulling up lame and forget the run. Atlantean last start winner who remains in the same grade, must be considered if he can back up. Burgundy Lad still a maiden galloper, but has attracted plenty of support recently, and gets his chance to win.

Luke's Betting Strategy: My Boss each-way.

iRACE

Race Preview: Stenmark rising in class and meets better quality horses but can measure up after a facile last-start win. There's good speed engaged here, which will suit him down to a tee, and look for him swooping over the top late now that the penny has dropped. Saturno Spring resuming from a long break but is right in this on form. Street Cry Success trialled well recently and Burrige has him going well, suggesting he can make his mark in Class 3. Ironchamp dangerous frontrunner who can be hard to catch if left alone. Be Bee caught the eye last start when running home powerfully in the straight.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Stenmark each-way.

iRACE

Race Preview: Mister Dynamo down in grade and trialled very well recently, hard to beat. Flak Jacket old-timer who continues to run well in this grade and is always a winning chance. Bizar Wins down in class here and is always a threat in Class 5, he should be running well. The Brotherhood will win again in this grade very soon after an okay run back into the grade last start. Magnifique a fast beginner who can run well if he finds an easy lead, which looks likely here.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Mister Dynamo win bet.

iRACE

Race Preview: Lim's Kosciuszko the best four-year-old at Kranji this season who is ideally placed under this week's racing conditions, the one they all have to beat at the weights. Tiger Roar top class four-year-old who is racing in great form and looks the only one who can really test the favourite. Relentless handy galloper who does little wrong but is not favoured at level weights against the two favourites. Con Speranza blinkers added first time in Singapore and he loves the track and distance, he can run well and contest a spot in the Top 3. Hero holding form with recent good trial and looks well-placed back in trip.

iRACE

Race Preview: Win Win last start winner who remains in the same grade and looks progressive enough to continue his winning ways. My Dreamliner should be highly suited by the drop back in distance and he can definitely run a big race here with a better-timed ride compared to last start. Surfie Boy recent runs have been encouraging and can run well. First Bowl had no luck last start when caught wide but still ran well, but again he will need luck in running. Legacy Fortune can improve second-up in Singapore after a fair sixth on debut.

Luke's Betting Strategy: My Dreamliner each-way.
