RACING PREVIEW

By Luke Middlebrook from iRACE magazine

Singapore racing continues on Saturday (25 March) for a 12-race fixture at Kranji Racecourse, highlighted by the running of the $300,000 Group 1 Raffles Cup (1600m).

Star five-year-old and last year's Horse of the Year LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO returns to action in the feature event. Since his failure in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint in December last year, LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO has wasted no time returning to his best when claiming the G3 Merlion Trophy over 1200m on the Polytrack in emphatic fashion last start. Simply making it a one-act affair on his first race start on the alternative racing surface, the Daniel Meagher-trained gelding looked every bit the winner throughout, drawing away in the straight to score by 2.5 lengths effortlessly.

Standing out as the highest rated horse in this week's feature, LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO is ideally placed under the Weight For Age conditions. However, it doesn't look to be a walk in the park for the multiple G1 winner as trainer Ricardo Le Grange's formidable duo, KATAK and HONGKONG GREAT, can test his mettle as they are ready to hit peak form.

Elsewhere, promising four-year-old GOLDEN MONKEY gets his chance to score a first-up win when he returns to action in the $100,000 Kranji Stakes A race over 1200m on turf.

GOLDEN MONKEY is first-up off a 61-day break after an excusable last-start ninth-place where he endured a tough trip racing wide and without cover for throughout. On Saturday, barrier 1 should ensure GOLDEN MONKEY benefits from a more economical run, while accounting for jockey Simon Kok's 1kg claim means he carries an advantageous 51kgs. His main danger, KING ARTHUR, who has also drawn well in barrier 3, has to lump 57.5kgs.

Looking well in his most recent trial, GOLDEN MONKEY appears ready to show up in the similar vein for form when runner-up to LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO on his final start of 2022.

iRACE

Race Preview: Just a moderate Class 5 to kick off the day and Zygarde is suited back onto the Polytrack after a last-start ninth on turf. Drawn well low where he can prove a serious winning chance. St Alwyn looks overdue for a win and enters this race in top form but will need early luck from a wide draw. Happy Friday consistent performer of late and worth considering in race such as this. Outfit can improve second-up from a break. Diamond Ring has a chance based on past form in this class of race and barrier 1 will suit.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Zygarde win bet.

iRACE

Race Preview: One of the weakest RM fields seen in some while and the Clements-trained pair stand out. Shihab has the Nunes factor, can run a big race and has the strongest formlines. Mewar showed good speed to lead last start and gave a good sight for an improved effort over this distance. February holding form with recent good trial and looks well. By Sacred Falls, he should relish the extra distance. Nimbus Cloud well placed at the weights and can be in the finish. Apis will find this easier than last start and can run well with blinkers on.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Shihab win bet.

Race Preview: Wecando drops in class here and finds a suitable race at his per track and distance, start to follow. Malibu Beach looks overdue for a win, finishing runner-up on his last two starts since taking the class drop, and will surely be in the finish yet again. Red Maned best run to date was last start and appears to be improving, he can give another big sight here. Typhoon ran on well in a recent trial and should be considered seeing Class 5 for the first time. Master Player can prove hard to catch but has ability and can show up on true form.

Race Preview: Dancing Light a proven performer at this level and rates in the chances after an excusable run in Class 3 last time. Pacific Angel racing in top form and will vie to repeat her all-the-way last-start win from the low draw. Sporty Sixty-One has changed name (Late: Harry Dream) and trialled well recently. If the race is run to suit, she could be charging over the top late. Baby Twins making local debut and has trialled well, should run a big race. Teardrops did not disgrace at her last run and she can be thereabouts in the finish.

Race Preview: Trainers Tim Fitzsimmons and Michael Clements have a stranglehold on this race. Dream Alliance racing in great form and expect another good run. The step up in trip looks ideal and he can get back to his winning ways. In All His Glory should be highly suited by the rise in distance and the low draw suits. He trialled well in between runs and is in with a top winning chance. Pacific Bao Bei will relish barrier 1 and winkers on for the first time locally suits. Istataba resuming from a break and not tested in recent trial, watch betting. Vittoria Perfetta recent runs have been encouraging and can run well.

iRACE

Race Preview: Etwas Neues had no luck last start when caught wide but still ran well into second place. He is the best 1700m Poly horse in this race and is overdue for a win. Tony's Love looked unlucky when being held up at a crucial stage last start and will relish the switch to the Polytrack. Nineoneone will also be suits back onto the Polytrack based on his win two starts ago. Khao Manee consistent performer of late and worth considering. Only his third try on the Polytrack, which is the query. Gold Kingdom should be highly suited by the rise in distance on his second run back in Class 5.

4 Invincible Tycoon

10 Pacific Hero

1 Siam Warrior

11 Buuraq Sixty-One

IRACE

Race Preview: Invincible Tycoon good performance when storming home for a nice second last start and, overall, his form is excellent. He looks on track to win again. Pacific Hero overlook last start as there were genuine excuses on his local debut. He should be in for a big second-up run with luck from his gate. Siam Warrior has a great record in this class and must be respected, start to follow. Buuraq Sixty-One showed good improvement last start and appears to be a chance. Be You had genuine excuses when lame last start and can improve in this race.

Luke's Betting Strategy: Pacific Hero each-way.
